SING ALONG CAROLS

'Once in Royal David's City'

Once in Royal David's City
Stood a lowly cattle – shed
Where a mother laid her Baby
In a manger for His bed.
Mary was that Mother Mild,
Jesus Christ her little child.

He came down to earth from heaven
Who is God and Lord of all
And His shelter was a stable,
And His cradle was a stall
With the poor and mean and lowly
Lived on earth our Saviour holy

And through all his wondrous childhood
He would honour and obey
Love and watch the lowly maiden:
In whose gentle arms he lay
Christian children all must be
Mild obedient, good as He

For he is our childhood's pattern
Day by day like us He grew
He was little weak and helpless
Tears and smiles, like us He new
And He feeleth for our sadness.
And He shareth in our gladness.

And our eyes at last shall see him,
Through His own redeeming love;
For that Child, so dear and gentle,
Is our Lord in heaven above;
And He leads his children on
To the place where He is gone.

Not in that poor lowly stable,
With the oxen standing by,
We shall see Him; but in heaven
Set at God's right hand on high
When like stars his children crowned
All in white shall wait around.

'Good King Wenceslas'

Good King Wenceslas looked out
On the Feast of Stephen,
When the snow lay round about
Deep, and crisp an even;
Brightly shone the moon that night,
Though the frost was cruel,
When a poor man came in sight,
Gathering winter fuel.

Hither page, and stand by me,
If thou know'st it telling,
Yonder peasant who is he?
Where and what is dwelling?
Sire, he lives a good league hence
Underneath the mountain
Right against the forest fence,
By St. Agnes' fountain.

Bring me Flesh and bring me wine,
Bring me pine-logs hither;
Thou and I will see him dine,
When we bear them thither.
Page and monarch, forth they went,
Forth they went together,
Through the rude wind's wild lament
And the bitter weather.

Sire the night is darker now,
And the storm blows stronger;
Fails my heart, I know not how;
I can go no longer.
Mark my footsteps, good my page,
Tread thou in them boldly;
Thou shalt find the winters rage,
Freeze thy blood less coldly.

In his masters steps he trod,
Where the snow lay dinted;
Heat was in the very sod
Which the Saint had printed.
Therefore, Christian men, be sure,
Wealth or rank possessing,
Ye who now will bless the poor
Shall yourselves find blessing.

'We Three Kings of Orient are'

We Three Kings of Orient are
Bearing gifts we traverse so afar
Field and fountain moor and mountain
Following yonder star,

O star of wonder, star of night
Star with royal beauty bright
Westward leading, still proceeding
Guide us to Thy perfect light

Born a King on Bethlehem plain
Gold I bring, to crown Him again
King forever, ceasing never
Over us all to reign

[Chorus]
Frankincense to offer have I;
Incense owns a Deity nigh:
Prayer and Praising, all men raising,
Worship Him, God most high:

[Chorus]
Myrrh is mine; its bitter perfume
Breaths a life of gathering gloom;
Sorrowing, sighing, bleeding, dying,
Sealed in the stone-cold tomb

[Chorus]
Glorious now, behold Him arise,
King and God, and sacrifice
Heaven sings alleluya,
Alleluya the earth replies:

[Chorus]

'We wish you a Merry Christmas'

We wish you a Merry Christmas;
We wish you a Merry Christmas;
We wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Glad tidings we bring to you and your kin;
Glad tidings for Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Oh, bring us a figgy pudding;
Oh, bring us a figgy pudding;
Oh, bring us a figgy pudding and a cup of good cheer.
[Chorus]

O Little Town of Bethlehem'

O Little town of Bethlehem
How still we see thee lie !
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting Light;
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee to-night.

O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth,
And praises sing to God the King,
And peace to men on earth
For Christ is born of Mary;
And, gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the Angels keep
Their watch of wondering love.

How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His Heaven,
No ear may hear his coming;
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him still
The dear Christ enters in.

O Holy Child in Bethlehem,
Descend to us we pray;
Cast out our sin, and enter in
Be born in us today,
We hear the Christmas Angels
The great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Emmanuel.

We won't go until we get some;
We won't go until we get some;
We won't go until we get some, so
bring some out here.

[Chorus]

We wish you a Merry Christmas;
We wish you a Merry Christmas;
We wish you a Merry Christmas
and a Happy New Year.
[Chorus]
